REBECCA Says.....

Regular Real Estate Tips, Tidbits & Resources provided by Rebecca C. Husted, Realtor/Real Estate Consultant with Better Homes and Gardens Real Estate, Daly City. Website: www.RebeccaHusted.com 415.706.4722,

HOW-TO: PICK THE RIGHT LENDER!

It's a challenge finding the right lender, the best deal and company to trust. Here's some tips.

1. Talk with your Realtor — Most Realtors will suggest several credible lenders. Lenders they recommend want to keep good relations with those Realtors so they'll take great care of you

2. Contact the lender before you fill out an application

Meet/Speak with lenders one-on-one before you begin paperwork. How are you treated? Is customer service up to par? Were you pressured into filing an application? There's no point pursuing a lender who makes you uncomfortable.

3. Turn the interview tables

You'll be asked for an interview. Take this opportunity and ask questions you have. Not sure what to ask? Try these:

- How long to process my application?
- The minimum down payment?
- What might delay approval?
- Do you offer loan rate locks?
- Is there a prepayment penalty?
- What are discount points and origination fees?

4. Study rates, points and fees

When comparing loans, pay attention to three things: rates, points, & fees. Taxes & insurance won't vary too much but rates, points, and fees can differ greatly, and all affect one another, so be sure to pay close attention and calculate carefully.

PG&E South Bay Crossing Electric Reliability Project

IMPROVING SERVICE RELIABILITY ON THE SAN FRANCISCO PENINSULA

As part of our commitment to deliver safe, reliable and affordable power to our customers, PG&E began work on a $10 million dollar project in late-September to upgrade the electric transmission lines crossing San Francisco Bay between PG&E's Eastshore Substation in Hayward and the PG&E San Mateo Substation in San Mateo. This project will improve service reliability to homes and businesses on the San Francisco Peninsula.

If you happen to be traveling on the San Mateo Bridge, you may see construction activity on transmission towers and lines running across the San Francisco Bay, parallel to the bridge. During the majority of the project, crews will work from helicopters to modify existing tower equipment, replace wires and upgrade existing transmission lines. Typical work hours will be Mondays through Fridays from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m., and the project is currently scheduled to be completed in December 2013.

The use of helicopters will help to minimize traffic impacts and the need to access property near the construction area. If you have any questions, or want to learn more about the project, please visit www.pge.com/BayCrossingProject.

Free Business Greening Program Saves Resources and Money

by Kathleen Gallagher, Colma's Sustainability Programs Manager

Colma has a new Business Greening Program to help businesses save money by reducing energy use, conserving water, and reducing waste. The program is FREE to Colma businesses and easy to participate in because Colma provides the expertise and resources to "green your business." Why does Colma provide this service to businesses? Because Colma's City Council approved a Climate Action Plan to reduce carbon pollution, and added programs to help businesses and residents be more resource efficient.

What's the Business Greening Program?

The program provides a free onsite assessment of your business by sustainability staff to find ways to save energy, conserve water, and reduce waste. Your business receives a recommendations report detailing how to reduce waste and save money. Additional resources are provided to make your business greening program a success. There is no obligation to complete any of the recommendations, but businesses are encouraged to take a few steps to be green. We also help businesses receive recognition through the Green Business Certification program.

What can the Business Greening Program do for my business?

- Save on WATER Bills
- Save on ENERGY Bills
- Save on WASTE hauling fees
- Provide resources to purchase eco-friendly supplies

Where can I get more information or sign up for this program?

See Colma's Sustainability section at www.colma.ca.gov or sign up for a free assessment by e-mailing recycle@colma.ca.gov
