FALL 2014

IN THE NOT TOO DISTANT FUTURE –

As we enter this glorious holiday season, I wanted to take a moment to reflect on where we have been and to project a forecast toward 2015. True to our core values, the power of connection, education and leadership provide the necessary tools for a strong business economy. The Daly City/Colma, Colma/Daly City Chamber of Commerce has successfully offered a multitude of events, seminars, and services. In reflecting and taking a step back to earlier 2014, I thank our business membership, profusely, that provided $40,000 in scholarships to our young high school scholars at the Access to Higher Educational Scholarship Awards program. Many thanks for the support to the State of our Cities; Major Employer Breakfast Business Speak Easy; Business to Business Week Vignettes and Extravaganza. Dialing closer through the warmth of summer and fall, our circles of influence and knowledge grew at the Business to Consumers Showcase. Just recently, the children and parents were a sight to behold at the Halloween Spook Parade and Costume Contest. And, don't forget the joy and laughter we shared when we Golfed and Bowled together. Landing here today, our business leaders are shining their light on business, government and communication with the 13th Annual North San Mateo County Leadership Forum. The path to success, economic opportunity and prosperity is definitely one of learning and refreshing our skills, training and networking.

Looking forward with anticipation of this year's Holiday Soiree and Cypress Business Awards, which provides something special for everyone, I am ever convinced that the new year, 2015, will hold promise and vision with the upcoming State of Our Cities and the Major Employers Breakfast / Business Speak Easy. It is for certain that we will all be very interested to hear about the new innovations, our economy and the strengthening of our businesses and cities, as they unfold.

There are countless ways that all of us at the Chamber strive to make The Town of Colma, and the City of Daly City, great places to live and work. If you are not yet a member, give us a call and we will show you where we can assist your business or organization. I look forward to seeing and visiting with you at one of our upcoming events. Please take a moment to visit the Chamber's website, www.dalycity-colmachamber.org for information, events and photos or give us a call at (650) 755-3900.

At this special time of year, may you all discover the magic of the holiday season "When Dreams Come True, Miracles Happen every day, and Love is the Greatest Gift To All." The Board of Directors and Chamber Staff join me in wishing you a Joyous Holiday Season and Happy, Healthy and Prosperous New Year.

FOCUS ON HOLIDAY SAFETY

Chief of Police Kirk Stratton
Colma Police Department

The holidays are upon us and that means more people will converge to our local stores and shopping centers. Unfortunately, criminals take advantage of this time of year as well. On behalf of the Colma Police Department I would like to provide you with holiday shopping tips and vehicle burglary prevention tips: 1) Secure your vehicle while shopping; (2) If you must shop at night, go with a friend or family member; and (3) Park in well lit areas. Beware of people selling items, such as gift cards or asking for assistance involving large sums of money. If it's too good to be true, it probably is. (4) Remove all valuables from your vehicle (i.e. laptop computers, electronics, etc.); (5) Do not leave any items in plain view that could be identified as potentially valuable (6) If you have to leave packages in your vehicle secure them in your trunk; (7) Do not leave spare keys in the vehicle; and (8) Promptly report any suspicious activity.

For more information on safety tips and other related information, please visit our website at www.colma.ca.gov. Have a safe holiday season.

Allstate Agent

John Leland, Allstate

John Leland became an Allstate Agent in 1966, beginning his career in The Linda Mar Shopping Center. In 1971, John had the good fortune of being chosen to open the first Allstate Office in the brand new Serramonte Plaza, just south of The Serramonte Shopping Center.

This location enabled John to serve the community and families, and to fashion a career where he was honored with many prestigious awards and accolades and inducted into The Allstate Financial Hall of Fame in 2007.

As a multi-line insurance company agent, John suggests that the best way to save money is to use one insurance company for your auto, home, and life insurance needs. He commented, "If you have had one company for many years, and you are pleased with their service, keep that company.

Happy Holidays!

Tis the season for adult beverage gift giving, receiving, and parties!

Q: I'm giving 2 bottles of wine as gifts for Christmas. What should I give?
-Joyce

A: The best gift is something they like, you like, or that sounds interesting. So, ask them, a friend, or a family members a few questions: (1) What type of wine you / they like? (2) What do you/ they typically drink wine with? Food? Snacks? Crackers? Cheese? (3) What have you/they wanted to try? After you have these answers, get a small basket (dollar store, thrift store, target, etc.), then a bottle or two of the suggested wine. And some extras- crackers, cheese, summer sausage, dried fruit and nuts that match the wine. Put everything in the basket and "voilà", instant memorable gift.

Now, what foods match the wines? Rule of thumb. Think about your tongue. Your tongue has five distinct areas. Sweet, Salty, Sour, Bitter. The last is called "Unami". This is where all four of the other areas mix. We will call this the tongues "happy spot".

Cheers!

The longer you are with that company, the more money you will save, plus you will be treated better.”

Contacting your insurance agent directly is the best way to get the best deal on your home and auto insurance. In this day and age of buying on the web or the 800 number, it is all the more important to have a trusted, local agent, in your area to handle your insurance needs. You will develop a relationship over time and get a better understanding of your coverage.

Remember, that sometimes “you get what you pay for.” The truth is that no insurance company has the lowest price for everyone, and prices do fluctuate. Some companies may “buy the market” with low prices to gain new customers only for their prices to gradually or immediately go up.

Life insurance planning is critical and should be undertaken only with a trusted life insurance agent who can advise you and assist in choosing the policy best suited to protect your family and loved ones. Term Life is meant to meet temporary needs. Permanent Life is life-long protection. Permanent Life is more expensive initially, but can be more cost effective with the passage of time, and the buildup of cash values, coupled with the locked in initial premium.

It is impossible to say which type of life insurance is better because the kind of coverage that is right for you is dependent on your life style and financial goals.

The best way to figure out the amount and type of life insurance that makes sense for your particular needs is TO MEET WITH YOUR LIFE INSURANCE AGENT.

You made the Decision it's time to Sell your Home—GREAT! But do you have Excessive Attachment to your Home?!?

As a Realtor who sells dozens of homes each year, it's easy to see them as commodities. To a Seller, though this is the place where a daughter took first steps, he carried his bride over a threshold, maybe even a place parents built with their bare hands. So, it's my job to have a conversation with sellers to help them mentally transition their home and to think of it as a Product to bring to market in the best position possible.

One must remember that, at the moment they made a decision to sell it, their family's precious place became an asset which, like any other good one would sell in the course of business, must be wisely marketed and priced and transacted for.

Signs that you may be excessively attached to a home are likely to see you: overprice it; ignore market data, like the recent sales prices of comparable homes nearby; disregard your agent's staging advice; improperly prepare the home for the market, failing to update or neutralize the decor; be irrational in negotiations around price or repairs; refuse to respond appropriately to market feedback, like no showings or offers even after it's been on the market for weeks or months.

When I run into a sellers who are overly emotionally attached to home, I try – gently- to make these points: “Buyers don't know the emotional value your home holds for you. Nor do they care—and they certainly have no interest or intention to pay for it. If you want to stay attached to your home, keep it—no harm, no foul. But if you truly want to sell it, you must release yourself from your emotional attachment to it.”

As a Member of the Top 5 in Real Estate Network®, I have a wealth of real estate and homeownership information that may be of help to you. Feel free to contact me any time to learn more about this important information, and be sure to forward this article on to any friends or family that may be interested as well.
